E. T. Guyen. Fronting the River.

(Continued Our ill success at Chien-chang led me to withdraw my forces from that place and proceed to Hoochew (in the Kinngse province). From there I made a circuit to Yi-huang, and thence to Chang-abu and Sin-kan, encampling somewhere in the neighborhood of these two latter places. My intention was to cross the (Kan) river, but infortunately, in addition to the water being very high the whole of the opposite shere was covered with. militia or volunteers who had extended their liner from Hong-dieng to Chi-ngan, and in the rived itself were numerous Imperialist guubeats. I has succour cut off. no boats in which to cross, and I could not very Sin kan several days, the water greatly to our surprise, retired, leaving us a dry bottom, and thus I was enabled to cross with my men to Chi-ngan. I was enabled to cross with my men to Chi-ngan. Chang-yu-tiang's approach I dispatched a body occupation of the Oriental Bank, from which place I went on direct to Jm-chow. I had no intention of remaining at this place but the people insisted upon my doing so, and Likewell retrent from my position. After staying at outside, and this made an attempt to succour the the people neisted upon my doing so, and I therefore distributed my mon over the different cities for the purpose of quieting the people. I likewise kept some men in Yi-ning, Wu-ning, and in many of the cities in Hoopel, is order to keep the people yu-ling, that they maintained an obstinute resisin order, and at the same time I made arragements tance. Saveral notifications were issued by me for the reception of those who had previously and sent into city addressed to the Manchoos and agreed to come over to us, the number of whom Chinese, telling them that those who wished to amounted to probably about 306,000 men. In the 6th join were at liberty to do so, and that those not mouth, Pao's tropps arrived at Jui-chow from Ch'ibmonth, Pao's tropps arrived at Jul-chow from Chih-possessed of that desire were at liberty to please chow, and governor Hoo of Hoopeb alos arrived and themselves, that it was a matter of no grave imwasencamped at Chin-niu and Pao-ngan, about six portance whether they joined or not. I was like or ten miles off. The newly levied battalions have wise willing to release the Tarta General Jul-ch's countered Too-tanng-tang's, troops and defeated. them, but at Lo-ping he met with a severe check, be received I had forced an entrance into the and lost over 10,000 men. Meanwhile Howng oity before it arrived, but had not taken the Tarwen-chin. Hoo-ting-wen, and Li-yuan-chi had come through Tung-liu and Chien-te, and were in their strength at that place. The people of Nganyi, with you, and am, moreover, ready to furnish you Heng-sin, Sin-chang and the places round about with funds if necessary, and safe escort as far there, were behaving very badly at this time as Chin-kinng." being constantly in the habit of plundering our commissariat supplies, doth from above and below. When passing near these places a short time after. I had twenty of the principal offenders arrested, tried then and had them executed. This affair being settled we retired and the whole of the troops at Juichow and other places were likewise withdrawn. Previous to this, Li-chin-yang who had taken up a position with ten squadrons of Imperialists at Ying-

excepted. I asked him If we was willing to joinme, to which he replied, that being a prisoner, he was no longer master of his own wishes. Discovering from his words that he had no real desire to come with us, I treated him with every respect. and instead of confining bim, allowed him his full to defray his travelling expenses, but this he re- use made of their artillery, the maxim of the liberty, and after a few days offered bim 60 taels quently learnt, and that with much regret, that he one man. It is now two years since these operahad been executed. The fact is that Li chin-yang did not willingly join us, but having been captured been made by the authoristies of bestowing he had no alternative but to remain with us as it suited as to deinin him. From Jui-chow we went on to Lin-chiang, and from there crossed over to Chang-shoo taken into the constant of the combatants (that is, the British ones), who are already in the possession of the over to Chang-shoo taken into the crossed of the constant of the over to Chang-shoo, when, just as the main body had crossed over Li-k'ni-yan and Lik'ai-shan were observed coming down from Chang-shu on that side. Thinking that my brother Li shift-sien was still at Lo-p'ing, being unaware of his retreat to Ch'ang-shan, I therefore went down the river on that bank. A raft in the river afforded ma the means of transit, and my object was to repair to Kingge and concentrate my forces there. On the way down, our forces suddenly came upon the Imperlists under Pao-ch'ao, which were strongly intrenched at Heng-ch'eng. I was entirely ignorant of the fact of the Vicerroy having placed these troops there, and they were only accidentally discovered by my two relations Li-k'ai-yun and Lik'al-shun, who happened to mount an intervening hill which had hitherto screened them from view. As soon as they were observed, and seen to be in great force, our troops gradually retired fortuntely in time for Pao had perceived them and immediately commenced putatit. Coming to a small creek which had been previously bridged over by ng, but the bridge of which had been destroyed by the people, our forces were without the means o greesing. The parsuers being just in the rear, the only alternative left was to wade [probably swim] medal upon those who were engaged in 1857, 58, over, which was done, but time hardly admitted of the china medal upon those who were engaged in 1857, 58, and 50, needs only to be extended, so as to taken prisoners and the troops scattered. When Li-chin-yang was brought before ma I noticed that he was a bold officer, and one that had won great fame, and hence I could not allow him to be that Li-shin-sien had fallen back upon Ch'ang- gracious General Order. If so, the sooner the D the Grantes Godowns, next to the French La shan. " Having rested for three days I then went on to Hok'ow, where I met Tung-youg-hai with or spitefully and politically tweak the respectable. Apply to a reinforcement of 200,000 men from Kuangse, and with this increase to my force I commenced. and with this increase to my torce I commenced B. or commit some other equally internationally my march for the Cheking province. On the route beloous offence, culminating in hostilities, and to this province Chin-buo, Tang chi, Yenchow and other cities were taken. I then agreed that weshould take two different routes to Chekiang. therefore ordered Li-shih sien to attack Wenchow, Taichow, Oboschow and Ningpo, and I likewise detached a force to Shaohing and other placer. Each place was given up as we advanced, and the officers of the cities joined us. At Poochiang, however, Chang-yu-liang had taken up a position with the intention of opposing us, but after a few days he was defeated and the Shihwang captured the place, and at once moved on to Ning. po It was just in the 9th month that our forces entered Cheklang. From Hooyang they proceeded to Yabang, having carried which they went on to Yen-ling-p'eo and bivouscked at Kon-l'ang, a little more than a mile from the city. The prefeetural and district oities in Chekiang were first taken and properly garrisoned before any other step was taken. The Ti-wang, Lien-yenk un, was at Yen-chow, Li-shang-yang, a relation was in charge of Long yeu. Cha-chin was still in the possession of the Imperialists. Chowlien-te, one of Id-shih-siens' officers, was in charge of Chinhua: Lau-chi and Tang-chi were gazzi soned by Oanton troops, Tai-wang, Huang-ob'eng chung, and the Shou- &c., apply to wang, Fau-ju-chiao two of Li-chih-sien's generals. The facts relating to the capture of Ningpo may be summed up as follows .- The foreign devils in --Ningpo invited our men to come to that place, and when the troops had arrived within three miles! of the city, the chief devil came out to the Taiwang's camp and requested the Tai-wang to allow five days grace fur the removal of the things from the foreign hongs. The troops wanted to enter at once but the Tai-wang would not allow them to do so. He ultimately consented to a delay of three days and agreed to encamp outside during that interval. The provisions for our force were meanwhile supplied by the foreign devils and natives from surrounding places. On the fourth marning the troops moved into the city and the Tai-wang was then taken to Hai-mun (ting), and the Chinhai district by the foreign devils, who murcover, rendered him assistance with boats, Both of those places were garrisoned, and the re mander of the troops who had gone unt to effect their conquest then returned to Ningpo. Upon this subject I might ablarge to any extent, but have not space to do so here. Shaohing and Sino-shan were taken by the Lai-wang, Lu-shun-te, but both the places were delivered up by the offivers in charge of them. The former place has a very high wall, and a very deep mont, and moreover is surrounded by water and approached by a TWO or Three ROOMS, in a Ten-roomed House very narrow road, which would have rendered our possession next to impossible had it not been given up. At this period the Chaklang capital was the only place not in our hands. Wu-kinng, Toching were garrisoned by our men. Haing-feng, Hunng-ta, and the other districts, such as Kaoton and Tung-pa, were in our hands. Li-yang, Changehow, Scochow, Klasing and Shih-men were also ours. Hoo-chow although in the hands of Chac-ching-sien, was hopelessly cut off from all succour. The road from Hangehow to Haining (chew) and Hai-yen (sien) was occupied by Imperialist troops, but no sooner did our mon reach Hal-ning than the general, Chang-weipang delivered up the city and Hel-yen-sion was Premises of the not long in following its example.
